Tue, 12 Jun 2018 06:38:00 GMT The Sea Poem by James Reeves - Poem Hunter - This poem begins with great energy. In the first stanza, the sea is "tumbling, rumbling," allowing the reader to imagine the sound and motion of the sea with imagery. In the second stanza, the sea is also full of fury, as it roars, much like a dog howls. Imagery helps the reader imagine the sound and sight of the sea at night.
